Maritime Archaeology of the Solent & Surrounding Area

Saturday 22nd June 2024      10.00am to 4.30pm

Avenue Hall, St Andrew's United Reform Church
The Avenue, Southampton SO17 1XQ

£21 to members, £25 non-members, £15 f/t students & under 18s
(prices include tea/coffee/biscuits, lunch not provided)

Southampton Water and the Solent have always had major maritime connections. Local shipwrecks have been identified and their study has provided important information about life in the past and methods of ship construction. Speakers will cover the maritime history of our area from the Middle Ages to the Second World War.

Southampton Docks by John Frederick Newman

Speakers include:

Dr Ian Friel – What May Lie Beneath: the potential legacy of Henry V's navy

Dr Alex Hildred – Excavating the Mary Rose

Mark Beattie-Edwards – Klein Hollandia: discovery was just the beginning

Dr Jack Pink – 18th to 20th century ship construction from shipwreck evidence on the south coast and beyond

Andy Skinner – Southampton and D-Day: the greatest day

Other speakers to be confirmed.
