June Lloyd Lecture 2019

Jim Leary

Round mounds & mega-monuments

7.30 Friday 22nd February 2019

Winchester Guildhall

Dr. Jim Leary will give an overview of the Leverhulme Trust-funded project Extending Histories: From Medieval Mottes to Prehistoric Round Mounds, which aimed to discover the history of monumental mounds in the English landscape. The lecture will bring together evidence from detailed analytical earthwork survey, geoarchaeological techniques and a comprehensive dating programme to determine the date of construction, sequence of development and environmental context of 20 castle mottes from across England.

With what was then English Heritage Jim, as 'Archaeologist (Prehistory)', conducted major excavations into Silbury Hill in 2007 and 2008, as well as in Pewsey Vale. He has been 'Field Archaeologist in Residence' at the McDonald Institute, University of Cambridge, and Director of the Archaeology Field School, at Reading University, conducting major excavations in Wiltshire. He is now Lecturer in Field Archaeology at the University of York.
