

Wearing the Blue-Grey and Khaki

£9.00 plus post and packing £1.50

The story of a 16 year-old boy, son of a grocer, at the outbreak of World War Two, his journey into manhood and across Europe with the RAF Airfield Construction Unit, the effect of the things he experienced which included Bergen Belsen and exploding cows. The High points and the many low points and the friendships made.

Post and packing on all five books in this series, bought at once is £3.50 and there is a reduction in post and packing if more than one book is bought at the same time. All books are obtainable from Steve at steve.old1@btinternet.com or by post at

Steve Old 27, Ashley Gardens, Chandlers Ford,
Eastleigh SO53 2JH