

WARG Members Publications

All produced by Timeline History and Archaeology (Hampshire), a not-for-profit publishing venture set up by WARG Chairman Stephen Old. IF any profit is made, it will all go to charity.

All publications are available via email to timelinehistoryhampshire@gmail.com or chair@warg.org.uk or post to Timeline History and Archaeology (Hampshire) at 27 Ashley Gardens, Chandlers Ford, Eastleigh, Hants, SO53 2JH. Payment by cheque payable to 'Stephen Old' or by BACS, details given once order placed.

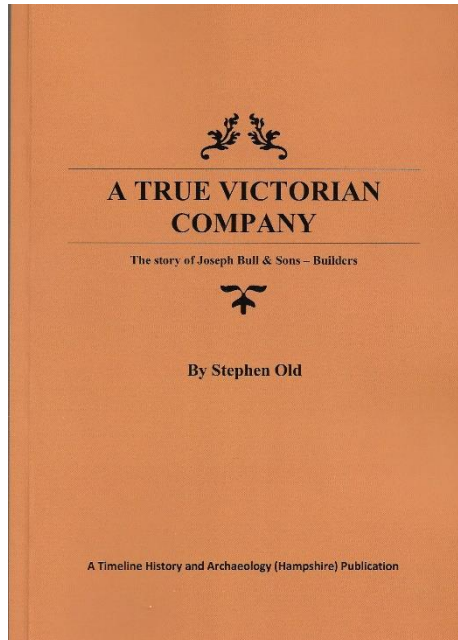

Admiral, Diplomat, Scapegoat. £8.00 plus post and packing £2.00

The life story of one of Queen Anne's favourite Admirals, his rapid rise through the ranks and his almost as rapid fall from grace. From the Caribbean to the North Sea and encounters with Buccaneers. 66 pages partly illustrated.

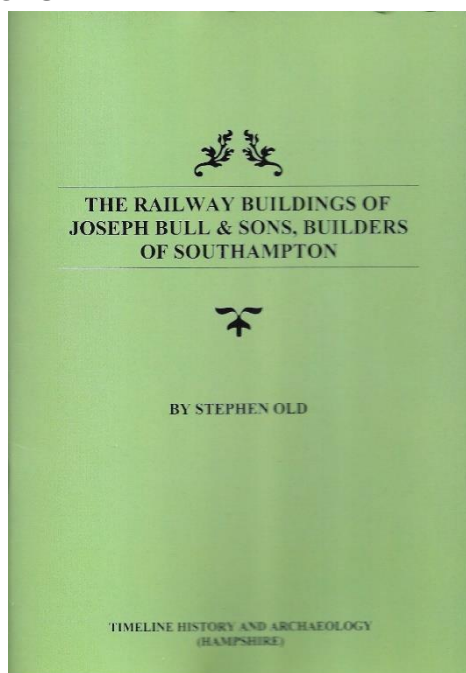

A True Victorian Company. £10.00 plus post and packing £2.00

The story of the founder and family behind one of Victorian Britain's foremost builders, based in Southampton, but building all of the country and abroad. 159 pages, lots of illustrations.

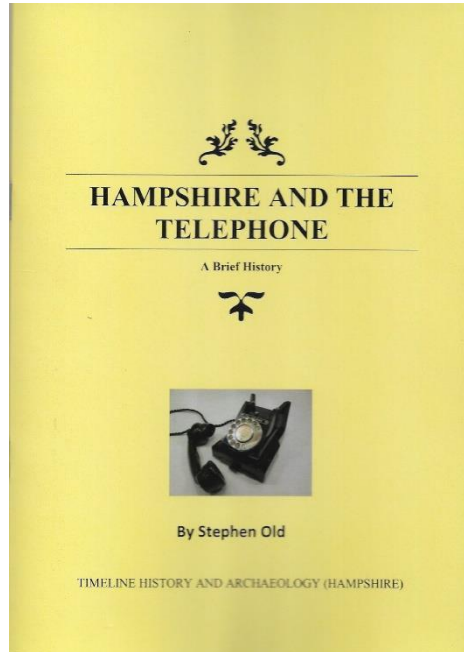

Railway Buildings of Joseph Bull and Sons, Builders of Southampton. £4.00 plus post and packing £2.00.

A more targeted book looking at this companies influence on building the railway infrastructure across the south and south west of England. 29 pages, lots of illustrations.

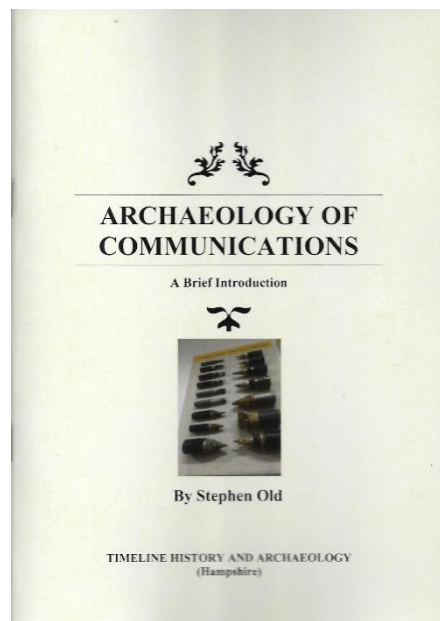

Hampshire and the Telephone. £3.00 plus post and packing £1.80

A look at how Hampshire has played a key role in the development of the Telephone and associated network technology from the very early days. 14 pages

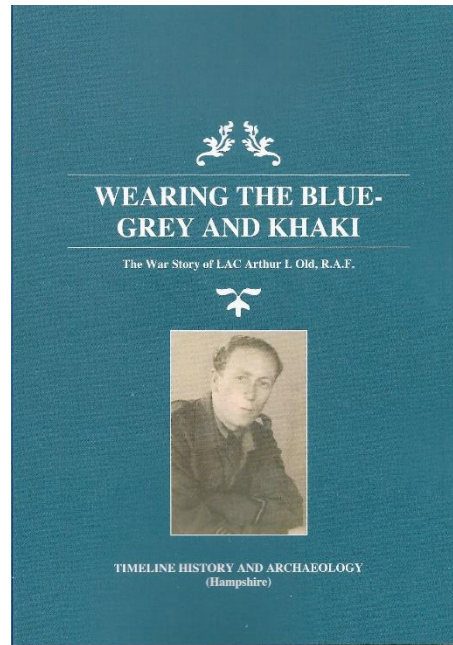

Archaeology of Communications. £3.00 plus post and packing £1.80

Communication often leaves no lasting imprint on the environment, however, with the growth of technology, this has changed, this is a brief introduction to the subject.

Wearing the Blue-Grey and Khaki, The War Story of LAC Arthur L Old, R.A.F. £9.00 plus post and packing £2.00 when available.

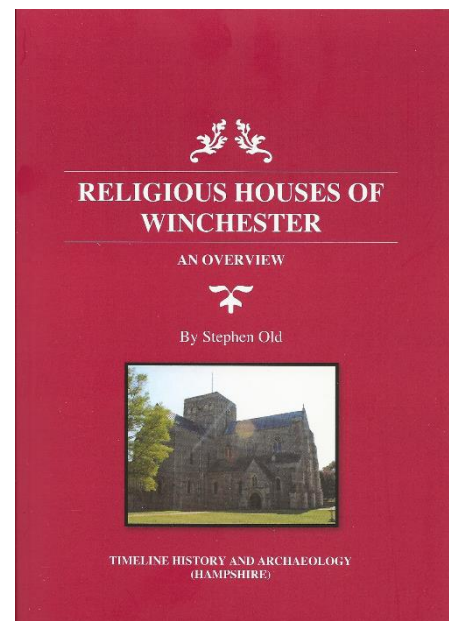

The personal writings, verbal reminiscences and diary entries that detail the life and times of a member of the “forgotten” R.A.F. squadrons of the Airfield Construction Wing through the years of World War II and after. 135 pages lots of illustrations.

Religious Houses of Winchester. £14.00 plus post and packing £2.00

This book looks at the religious houses and establishments that exist or existed in Winchester from Iron Age to modern times. Looking at all religions and types of institutions except Christian places of “worship only”.

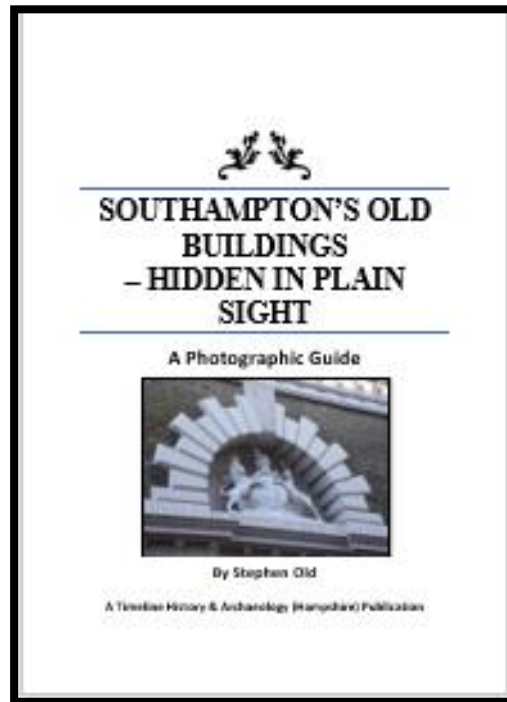

It uses the VCH for Hampshire published in 1903 as a base but adds interpretation of the text, the addition of other sources and archaeology to enable the reader to understand the development and importance of the subject. Glossaries help to demystify the terms used. This book is a one stop shop for information on Winchester’s past and present religious houses.

Coming Soon.....

Southampton's Old Buildings – Hidden in Plain Sight

A photographic guide to Southampton's Old Buildings with descriptions and a potted history of each building.

Post and packing on all books bought at once is £3.50 and there is a reduction in post and packing if more than one book is bought at the same time.